MARTHA S. GRAFTON LIBRARY
MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE

It was red and yellow and green and brown
And scarlet and black and ochre and peach
And ruby and olive and violet and fawn
And lilac and gold and chocolate and mauve
And cream and crimson and silver and rose
And azure and lemon and russet and grey
And purple and white and pink and orange
And red and yellow and green and brown and blue!

Some folks dream of the wonders they'll do Before their time on this planet is through . . .

Some just don't have anything planned
They hide their hopes and their heads in the sand . . .

Now I don't say who is wrong, who is right . . .
But if by chance you are here for the night
Then all I need is an hour or two
To tell the tale of a dreamer like you
We all dream a lot — some are lucky, some are not
But if you think it, want it, dream it, then it's real
You are what you feel
But all that I say can be told another way
In the story of a boy whose dreams came true
And he could be you

"Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat"
A Broadway Musical, New York 1973

"Now Jacob loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age:
and he made him a coat of many colors."
Genesis, Chapter 37, Verse 3

Now Jacob wanted to show the world he loved his son
To make it clear that Joseph was the special one
So Jacob bought his son a coat
A multi-colored coat to wear . . .

It was red and yellow and green and brown
And scarlet and black and ochre and peach
And ruby and olive and violet and fawn
And lilac and gold and chocolate and mauve
And cream and crimson and silver and rose
And azure and lemon and russet and grey
And purple and white and pink and orange
And red and yellow and green and brown and blue!

Joseph's coat was elegant, the cut was fine
The tasteful style was the ultimate in good design
And this is why it caught the eye
A king would stop and stare —

Such a dazzling coat of many colors
How he loved his coat of many colors!

'And when I got to try it on I knew my sheepskin days were gone!'

(Joseph Act I scene 1)

Bright colors shining, wonderful and new

Such a stunning coat of many colors
How he loved his coat of many colors!

It was red and yellow and green and brown
And scarlet and black and ochre and peach
And ruby and olive and violet and fawn
And lilac and gold and chocolate and mauve
And cream and crimson and silver and rose
And azure and lemon and russet and grey
And purple and white and pink and orange
And red and yellow and green and brown and blue!

Now Joseph's brothers weren't too pleased with what they saw . . .

"We had never liked him all that much before
And now this coat
Has got our goat
We feel life is unfair!"

(Brothers Act I scene 1)

But where they have really missed the boat is "We're great guys but no-one seems to notice!"

(Brothers Act I Scene 1)

And when Joseph graced the scene
His brothers turned a shade of green . . .

His astounding clothing took the biscuit
Quite the smoothest person in the district . . .

"I look handsome, I look smart
I am a walking work of art
Such a dazzling coat of many colors
How I love my coat of many colors!"

(Joseph Act I scene i)

And their father couldn't see the danger
He could not imagine any danger
He just saw in Joseph all his dreams come true . . .

To the Class of 1985:

The only constant I know is change. My wish for all of us is that our years on this emerald green hill have helped each of us to live more comfortably with change.

Dreams are the precursors of change. They are our hopes for the future. Dreams fuel the fire that gives our days sparkle and our nights warmth. They make life worth living.

For me, life without renewing dreams, a new goal, a new challenge, an anticipated new experience, would cause the years to stretch before me into a tiresome journey toward an unknown finality. Instead, each dream makes each dawn the first day of the rest of my life. The autumn of my life is instead spring. I anticipate no cold winter, only the heartwarmth of summer.

I go with you, Class of 1985, to a new world of unknown but joyfully anticipated dreams.

Virginia L. Lester

Joseph's coat annoyed his brothers

"But what makes us mad
Are the things that Joseph tells us of the dreams he's often had"

(Brothers Act I scene ii)

"I dreamed that in the fields one day, the corn gave me a sign
Your eleven sheaves of corn all turned and bowed to mine
My sheaf was quite a sight to see, a golden sheaf and tall
Yours were green and second-rate and really rather small

I dreamed I saw eleven stars, the sun and moon and sky
Bowing down before my star, it made me wonder why
Could it be that I was born for higher things than you?
A post in someone's government, a ministry or two?"

(Joseph Act I scene ii)

“The dreams of our dear brother are the decade’s biggest yawn
His talk of stars and golden sheaves is just a load of corn
Not only is he tactless but he’s also rather dim
For there’s eleven of us and there’s only one of him

The dreams of course will not come true
That is, we think they won’t come true
That is, we hope they won’t come true
What if he’s right all along?

The dreams are more than crystal clear, the writing on the wall
Means that Joseph some day soon will rise above us all
The accuracy of the dreams we brothers do not know
But one thing we are sure about — the dreamer has to go!”

(Brothers Act II scene i)

And so, the next day, far from home, the brothers planned the repulsive crime . . .

And in a trice the dirty deal was done
Silver coins for Jacob's favorite son
Then the Ishmaelites galloped off with a slave in tow
Off to Egypt where Joseph was not too keen to go . . .

3

Oh, how brothers, how low can you stoop?
You make a sordid group, how low can you stoop
Poor poor Joseph, sold to be a slave Situation's grave, sold to be a slave . . .

3

Now Joseph's luck was really out, his spirit and his fortune low Alone he sat, alone he thought of happy times he used to know . . .

3

"Close every door to me, hide all the world from me
Bar all the windows and shut out the light
Do what you want with me, hate me and laugh at me
Darken my daytime and torture my night

3

If my life were important I would ask will I live or die
But I know the answers lie far from this world Close every door to me, keep those I love from me
Children of Israel are never alone
For I know I shall find my own peace of mind
For I have been promised a land of my own

4

Just give me a number instead of my name
Forget all about me and let me decay
Children of Israel are never alone
For I know I shall find my own peace of mind
For I have been promised a land of my own."

Hey dreamer! Don't be so upset
Hey Joseph! You're not beaten yet . . .

Go! Go! Go! Joseph you know what they say
Hang on now Joseph you'll make it one day
Don't give up Joseph fight till you drop We've read the book and you come out on top!

Now into Joseph's prison cell were flung two very frightened men
"We don't think that we will ever see the light of day again Hey Joseph! Help us if you can We've had dreams that we don't understand."
(two men Act III scene ii)

6 6

Both men were servants of Pharaoh the king
Both in the doghouse for doing their thing
One was a baker, a cook in his prime
One was a butler, the Jeeves of his time

6

Tell me of your dreams my friends, and I will tell you what they show
Though I cannot guarantee to get it right, I'll have a go . . ."
(Joseph Act III scene ii)

1

First the butler, trembling, took the floor
Nervously he spoke of what he saw

"There I was standing in front of a vine
I picked some grapes and I crushed them for wine
I gave it to Pharaoh who drank from my cup
I tried to interpret but I had to give up"

"You will soon be free, my friend, so do not worry any more
The king will let you out of here, you'll buttle as you did before . . ."

7 7

Next the baker rose to tell his dream
Hoping it would have a similar theme . . .

“There I was standing with baskets of bread
High in the sky I saw birds overhead
Who flew to the baskets and ate every slice Give me the message — like his would be nice”

8
“Sad to say your dream is not the kind of dream I’d like to get
Pharaoh has it in for you, your execution date is set Don’t rely on all I say I saw It’s just that I have not been wrong before . . .”

(Joseph Act III scene ii)

7
Go! Go! Go! Joseph you know what they say
Hang on now Joseph you’ll make it one day
Go! Go! Go! Joseph you’re doing fine
You and your dreamcoat — ahead of your time!
Go! Go! Jo!

Now Pharaoh, he was a powerful man
With the ancient world in the palm of his hand
To all intents and purposes he Was Egypt with a capital E

7

Down at the other end of the scale
Joseph was still doing time in jail
For even though he is in with the guards
A lifetime in prison seems quite on the cards

3

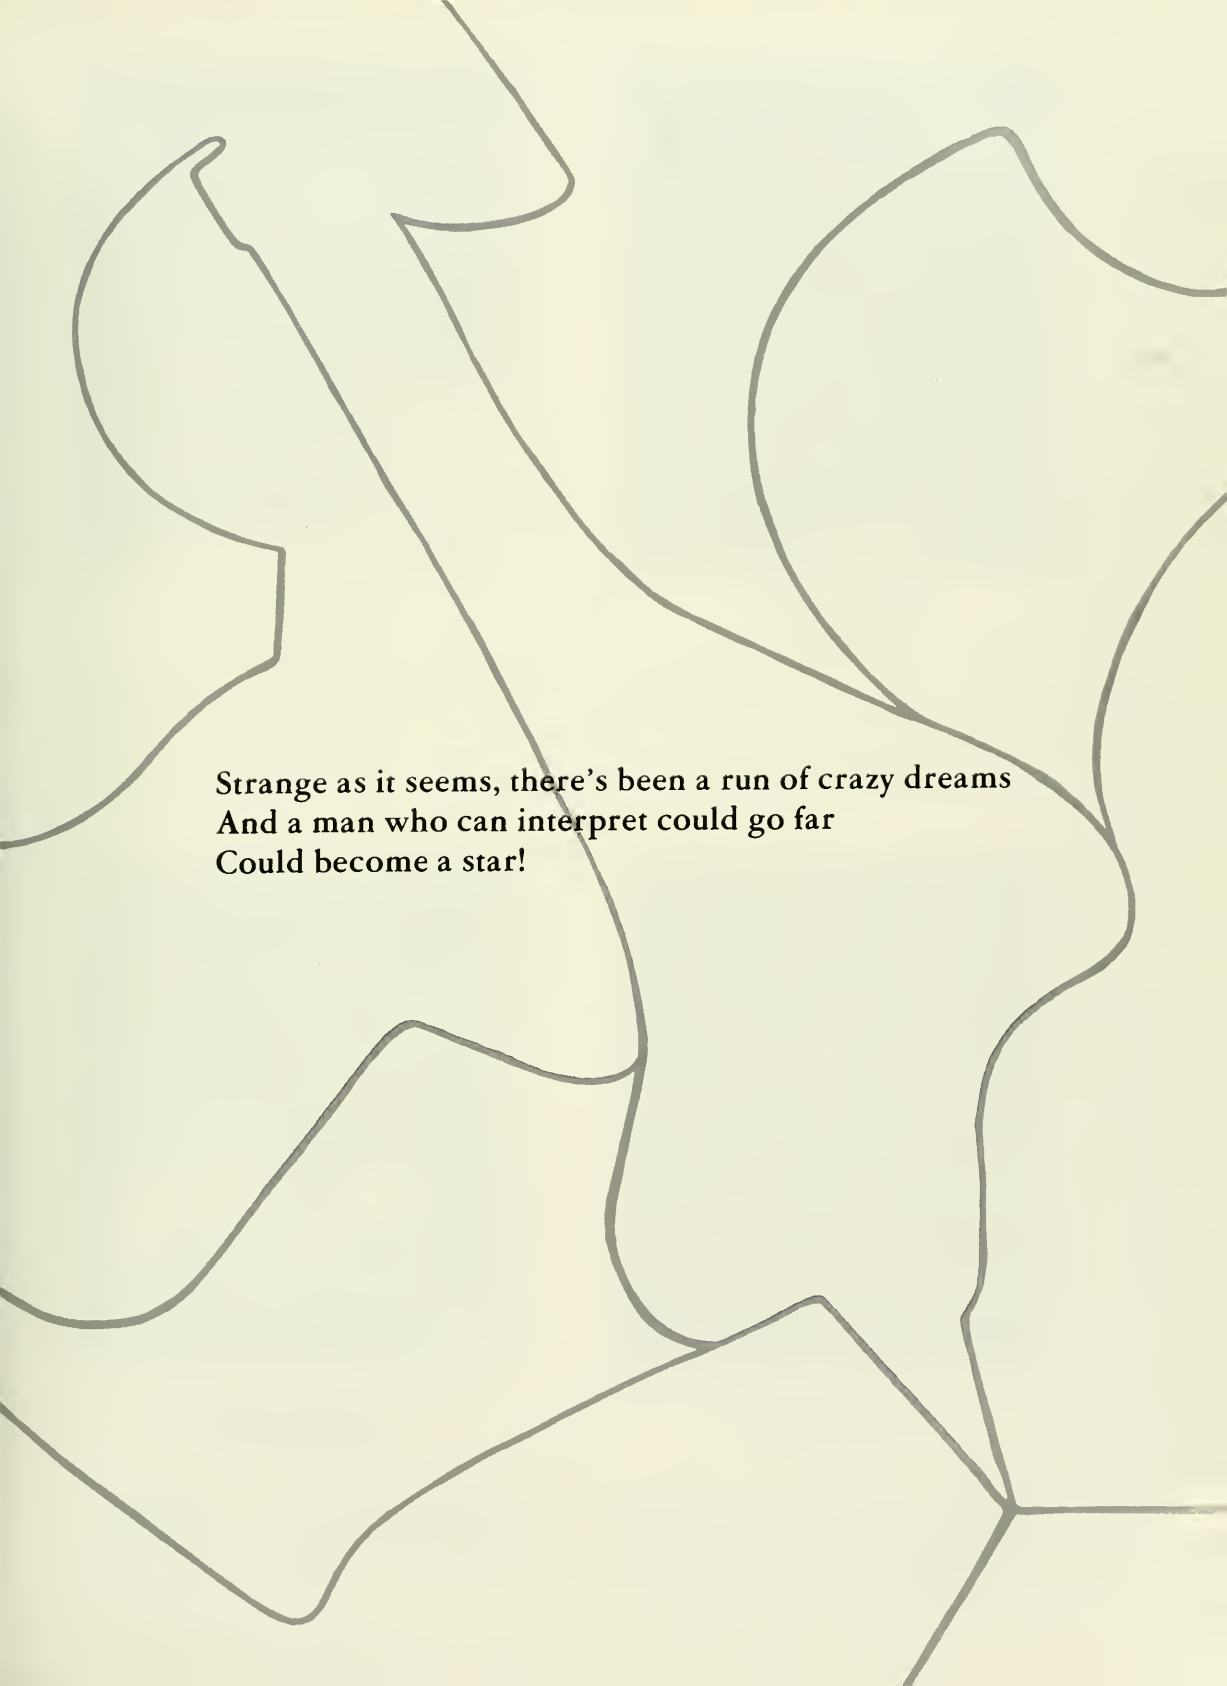

But if my analysis of the position is right
At the end of the tunnel there's a glimmer of light
For all of a sudden indescribable things
Have shattered the sleep of both peasants and kings . . .

The background of the page is a light cream color, overlaid with a complex, abstract line drawing in a dark grey or black ink. The lines are thick and irregular, forming large, interconnected shapes that resemble organic forms or perhaps a stylized map. The lines vary in thickness and direction, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall effect is that of a hand-drawn sketch or a conceptual diagram.

Strange as it seems, there's been a run of crazy dreams
And a man who can interpret could go far
Could become a star!

Guess what? In his bed Pharaoh had an uneasy night
 He had had a dream that pinned him to his sheets with fright
 No-one knew the meaning of the dream
 What to do? Whatever could it mean?
 Then his butler said, "I know a bloke in jail
 Who is hot on dreams, could explain old Pharaoh's tale"

6

Pharaoh said, "Fetch this Joseph man
 I need him to help me if he can."

Chained and bound, afraid, alone
 Joseph stood before the throne . . .

"My service to Pharaoh has begun Tell me your problems mighty one"

(Joseph Act V scene ii)

"Well I was wandering along by the banks of the river when seven fat cows came out of the Nile
 And right behind them fine healthy animals came seven other cows, skinny and vile
 When the thin cows ate the fat ones which I thought would do them good
 But it didn't make them fatter like I thought a monster supper should Because the thin ones were as thin as they had ever ever been This dream has got me baffled, hey Joseph, tell me what it means . . ."

"Seven years of bumper crops are on their way
Years of plenty, endless wheat and tons of hay
Your farms will boom, there won't be room
To store the surplus food you grow
After that, the future doesn't look so bright
Egypt's luck will change completely overnight
And famine's hand will stalk the land
With food an all-time low
Noble king, there is no doubt
What your dream is all about
All these things you saw in your pyjamas
Are a long range forecast for your farmers
And I'm sure its crossed your mind
What it is you have to find
Find a man to lead you through the famine
With a flair for economic planning
But who this man would be I just don't know?!"

Pharaoh said . . .

"Well, stone the crows, this Joseph is a clever kid Who'd have thought that fourteen cows could mean the things he said they did?

Joseph, you must help me further, I have found a job for you
You shall lead us through this crisis — you shall be my number two."

Pharaoh told his guards to fetch a chisel from the local store
Whereupon he ordered them to cut the chains that Joseph wore
Joseph got a royal pardon and a host of splendid things
A chariot of gold, a cloak, a medal and some signet rings . . .

Seven summers on the trot were perfect just as Joseph said
Joseph saw that food was gathered ready for the years ahead
Seven years of famine followed. Egypt did not mind a bit
The first recorded rationing in history was a hit!

This could be the happy ending, perfect place to stop the show
Joseph after all has got about as far as he can go
But I'm sure that Jacob and his other sons have crossed your mind
How had famine hit the family Joseph left behind?

Well back in Canaan the future looked rough Joseph's family were finding it tough . . .

"For the famine has caught us unprepared
We are thin, we are ill, we are getting scared
It's enough to make anyone weep
We are down to our very last sheep
We will starve if we hang around here
And in Egypt there's food going spare
They've got corn, they've got meat, they've got food and drinks
And if we have the time we could see the Sphinx!"

(Brothers Act VI scene i)

So they finally decided to go Off to Egypt to see brother Jo . . .

So they all lay before Joseph's feet

"Mighty prince, give us something to eat!"

Joseph found it a strain not to laugh because Not a brother among them knew who he was

"I shall now take them all for a ride
After all they have tried fratricide . . ."

(Joseph Act VI scene ii)

I dreamed that in the fields one day, the corn gave me a sign
Your eleven sheaves of corn all turned and bowed to mine
I dreamed I saw eleven stars, the sun and moon and sky
Bowing down before my star — and now I realize why

3

"How do I know where you come from? You could be spies Telling me that you are hungry — that could be lies
How do I know who you are?

3

Why do you think I should help you? Would you help me?
Why on earth should I believe you? I've no guarantee!"

(Joseph Act VI scene ii)

Grovel, grovel, cringe, bow, stoop, fall
Worship, worship, beg, kneel, sponge, crawl

"We are just eleven brothers, good men and true
Though we know we count for nothing when up next to you
Honesty's our middle name
Life is slowly ebbing from us, hope's almost gone It's getting very hard to see us from sideways on . . ."

(Brothers Act VI scene iii)

"I rather like the way you're talking, astute and sincere Suddenly your tragic story gets me right here"

(Joseph Act VI scene iii)

"This is what we hoped you'd say"

(Brothers Act VI scene iii)

"All this tugging at my heartstrings seems quite justified I shall give you what you came for and lots more beside."

(Joseph Act VI scene iii)

Thank you, thank you, cringe bow, stoop, fall
Worship, worship, beg, kneel, sponge, crawl . . .

Joseph handed them sackloads of food
And they groveled in base gratitude
Then, unseen, Joseph nipped out around the back
And planted a cup in young Benjamin's sack
When the brothers were ready to go
Joseph turned to them all with a terrible stare and said . . .

4

8

“No! No! No! No!
Stop! you robbers — your little number's up!
One of you has stolen my precious golden cup!”

(Joseph Act VII scene i)

Joseph started searching through his brother's sacks
Everyone was nervous, no-one could relax
Who's the thief? Who's the thief?
Is it Reuben? No! Is it Simeon? No! Is it Naphtali? No!
Is it Dan? No! Is it Asher? No! Is it Isaacher? No!
Is it Levi? No! Is it Zebulun? No! Is it Gad? No!
Is it Judah? No! Is it him? Could it be — could it possibly be — Benjamin?

2

“Yes! Yes! Yes! Yes!
Benjamin, you nasty youth, your crime has shocked me to the core
Never in my whole career have I encountered this before Guards, seize him! Lock him in a cell!
Throw the key into the Nile as well!”

(Joseph Act VII scene ii)

Each of the brothers fell to his knees . . .

"Show him some mercy oh mighty one please
He would not do this he must have been framed Jail us and beat us, we should be blamed . . ."

(Brothers Act VII scene ii)

And Joseph knew by this his brothers now were honest men
The time had come to reunite them all again

"Can't you recognize my face? Is it hard to see?
That Joseph, who you thought was dead, your brother, is me?"

(Joseph Act VII scene ii)

"Joseph! Joseph! Is it really true?
Joseph! Joseph! Is it really you?
Joseph! Joseph!"

(Brothers Act VII scene ii)

A Special Dedication

Virginia L. Lester

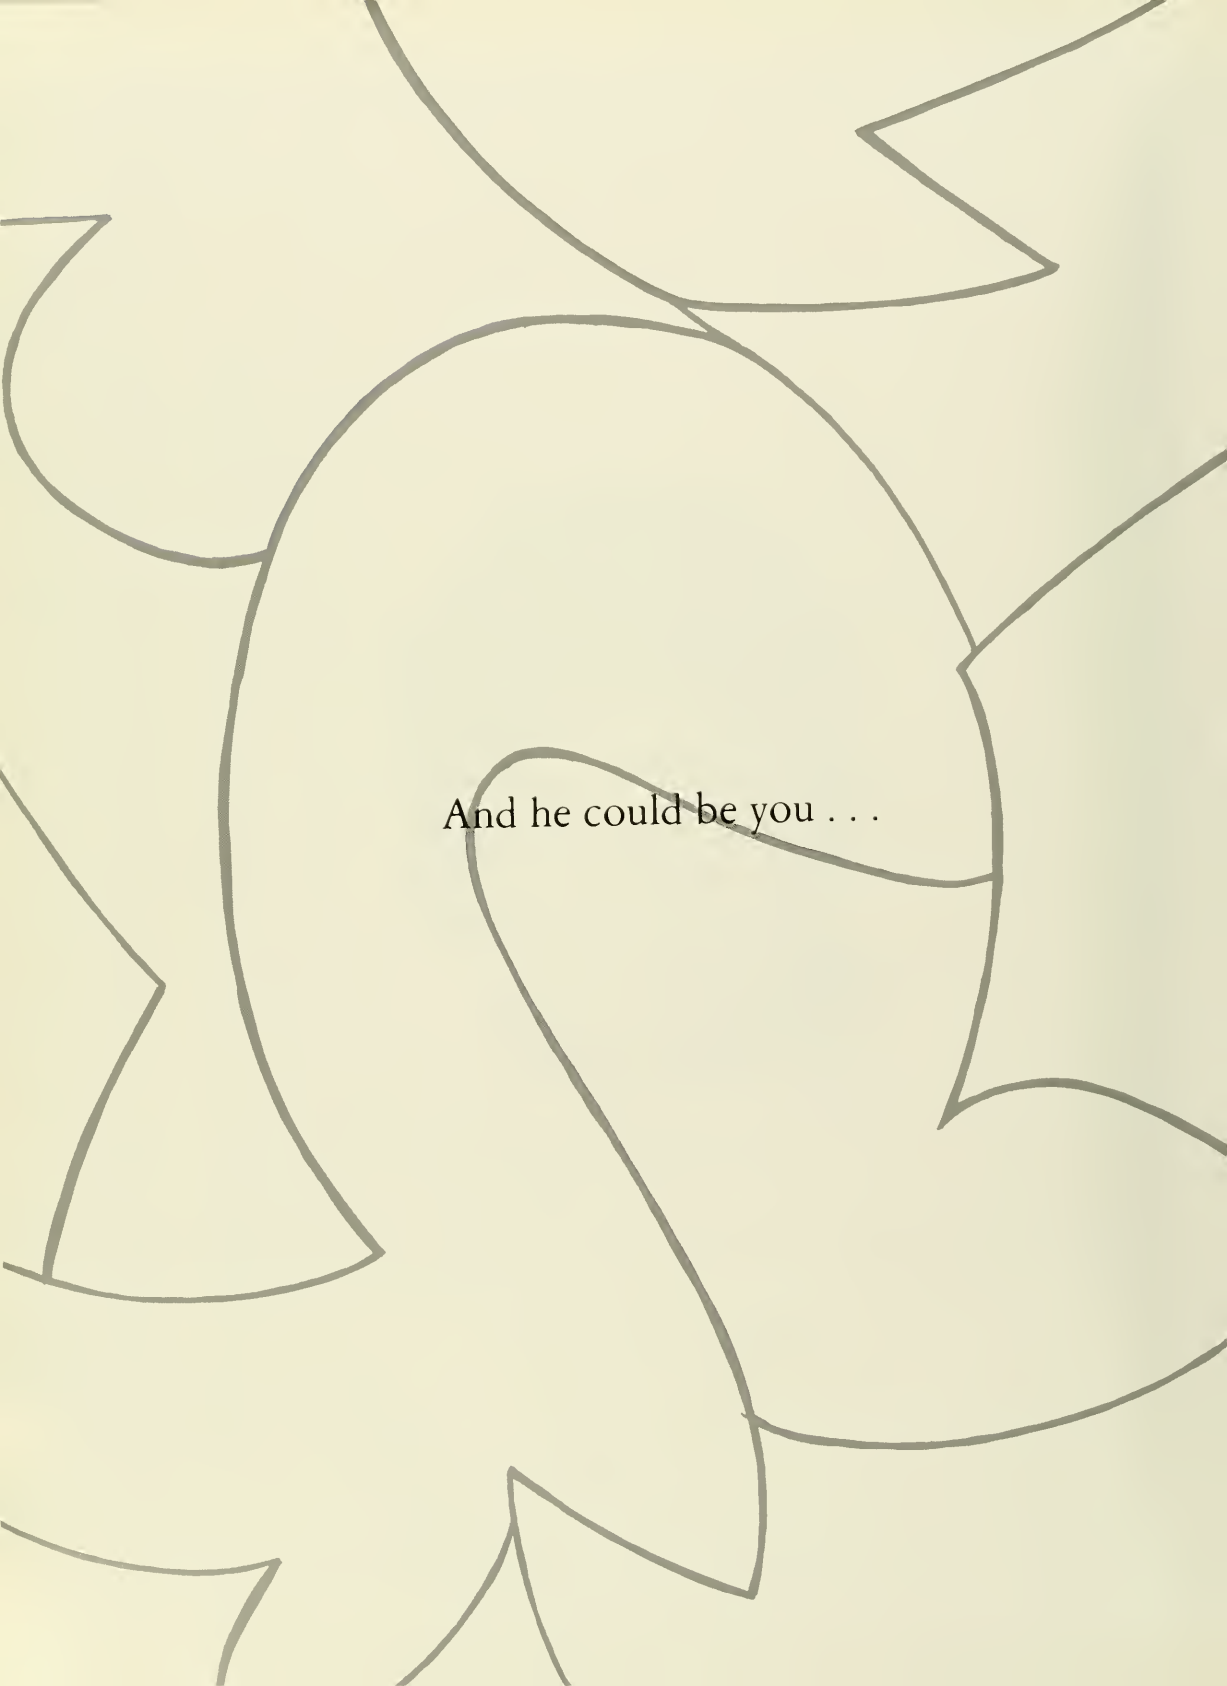

I closed my eyes, drew back the curtain
To see for certain what I thought I knew
Far far away, someone was weeping
But the world was sleeping
Any dream will do

I wore my coat with golden lining
Bright colors shining, wonderful and new
And in the east, the dawn was breaking
And the world was waking
Any dream will do

A crash of drums, a flash of light
My golden coat flew out of sight
The colors faded into darkness
I was left alone

May I return to the beginning
The light is dimming, and the dream is too
The world and I, we are still waiting
Still hesitating
Any dream will do.

(Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat)

The background of the page is a light beige color, overlaid with a complex, abstract line art pattern. The lines are dark grey or black and form various organic, flowing shapes that resemble stylized leaves, petals, or perhaps a map of a region. The lines are of varying thickness and create a sense of movement and depth across the entire page.

And he could be you . . .

“Give me my colored coat, my amazing colored coat!”

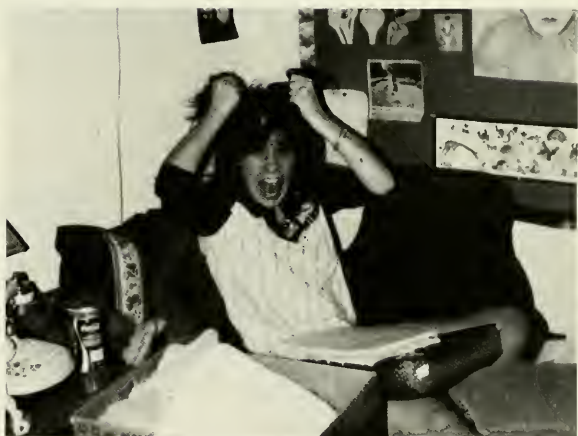

Farewell to Tullidge residence hall. May the PEG students love it as we did!

COLLEGE LIFE

A Poem For Jennifer L. Jones

Transition we said would face you one day
From grade school to high school
then college we say
The yearbook tells all
From North Bailey's Hall
When you were a freshman
Low grades from you never Year two, now a sophomore
Honor Council forever
We know where you've been
Have seen what you've done
The phone bill $$, we've seen
WE still love you hon
Your time and devotion as "RA" my dear has led you to chairperson all in one year
The snow started falling and ever so deep
Her mustang kept calling please send her a jeep
From Bailey's to Hilltop's
then Spencer's great hall

"Who's Who" was an honor bestowed you last fall
The Alumna awaits you
In Virginia's green foot hills
Mary Baldwin College will miss you
As will White Star Mills Hundred of parents
this day are so proud their hearts filled with joy
Pounding ever so loud
But Jennifer dear we are the proudest
Look over your shoulder for we shout the loudest Close friends and dear friends your Grandmother too
Never forget, brother Mark too
Your Father and Mother
Have awaited this day
Happy graduation
What else can we say

WE LOVE YOU
"Mom" and "Dad"

Congratulations Class of 1985
Dr. and Mrs. L. Glenn Christie

Congratulations Pryor
It isn't the Mountains ahead
That
Wear you out
It's
The grain of sand
In your shoe

With love,
Mom, Ballard,
Rives and Luke

Congratulations Kelly Andrews
We are proud of you!
Love Mom and Dad

Laurel,
Congratulations on being accepted to the London School of Economics. We hope your year went well
